Terms and Conditions of Enrollment

Assumption of Risk

I understand that part of the camp experience involves activities, arrangements, and interactions that may be new to my son, and that they come with certain risks and uncertainties beyond what my son may be used to dealing with at home. The big component of this is the high ropes and low ropes team building course, but it is not exclusive of this component. I am aware of these risks, and I am assuming them on behalf of my son. I realize that no environment is risk free, and so I have instructed my son on the importance of abiding by the camp's rules, and my son and I both agree that he is familiar with these rules and will obey them.

Acceptance & Forms Required

All of the following are required: 1) registration form, 2) health form, 3) youth code of conduct, and 4) the terms and conditions of enrollment.

These above forms are due to the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood no later than June 1, 2017.

Please know because of limited space, we will only be accepting the first 100 completed applications, and once that number is reached, we will stop accepting applications.

Transportation to and from Black Rock Retreat Center is the responsibility of the participant and their family or using the provided bus transportation. Any other arrangements must be communicated to the Vocations Office.

Trip and Photo Permission

Parents or guardians give permission to have campers participate in all activities of Quo Vadis Days at Black Rock Retreat Center.

Parents or guardians give permission to have photographs/videos and audios of campers used in printed materials, or for other media for promotional purposes for the Vocation Office of the Diocesan Priesthood.

Camper Code of Conduct

All participants of Quo Vadis Days 2017 are required to read and sign the rules of conduct. If there are violations of the rules of conduct on behalf of the participant, the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood and Black Rock Retreat Center reserves the right to ask the participant to leave, or other lesser forms of disciplinary action. If there is damage to any building that occurs as a result of the participant's actions, the parent or guardian will be responsible for reimbursement to the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood.

Personal Property

Black Rock Retreat Center, the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia are not responsible for lost or stolen property (cameras, etc.). Cell phones are allowed only with permission of one of the chaperones.

Cancellation, billing, and refund policies

The registration fee for the camp is due by June 1, 2017. This deposit is refundable only if we have a waiting list for the camp. If there is a waiting list and you decide not to participate and ask for a refund, you will be given it, and the first man on the waiting list will be able to come. If there is no waiting list, then the deposit is non-refundable.

A $35 charge will be made on any returned checks.

There is no allowance or refund for any absences, missed days, late arrival, dismissal, partial week, or early withdrawal of participant during the Quo Vadis Days Camp.

It is agreed that any dispute or cause of action arising between the parties, whether out of this agreement or otherwise, can only be brought in the PA Court of Common Pleas and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania.
