I'm a Pastor. What should I be doing?

Parish priests are the most significant vocation promoters for the priesthood.

The strongest candidates who come through the Vocation Office each have a close relationship with a priest who guides him through the process and is willing to advocate for him when necessary.

Below are some concrete steps that you could take to foster priestly vocation.

- Use your initiative and creativity to build up a Culture of Vocations
- Say the Prayer for Vocations before each Mass
- First and foremost, invite men to consider if God is calling them to the priesthood
- Use your leadership to make every aspect of the parish engaged in fostering priestly Vocations. Please see how the other leadership roles can foster vocations.
- Consider starting a Parish Vocation Committee
- Bring men to the St. Andrew Dinner held at the Deanery level
- Invite men to a Come and See Weekend (<https://heedthecall.org/come-see-weekend/>)
- Bring men to Tuesdays @ Overbrook
- Invite High School Guys to the Quo Vadis Camp or if Juniors or Seniors, the Going Deeper Camp or Philadelphia Catholic Scholars Program
- Host a Parish Holy Hour. <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/prayers-and-devotions/adoration/holy-hour-for-vocations.cfm>
- Refer men, college aged and above, to Father DeLacy for Forged by the Fire
- Organize an event where men get to know you as a person and what your life is like.
- Make it known that you will be happy to speak to guys about what God is doing in their lives.

I'm a Parochial Vicar, Sunday Assistant, a Resident Priest, or Senior Priest. What should I be doing?

Parish priests are the most significant vocation promoters for the priesthood.

The strongest candidates who come through the Vocation Office each have a close relationship with a priest who guides him through the process and is willing to advocate for him when necessary.

Below are some concrete steps that you could take to foster priestly vocation.

- Use your initiative and creativity to build up a Culture of Vocations
- Ask your Pastor if you can say the Prayer for Vocations before each Mass
- First and foremost, invite men to consider if God is calling them to the priesthood
- Consider starting a Parish Vocation Committee
- Bring men to the St. Andrew Dinner held at the Deanery level
- Invite men to a Come and See Weekend (<https://heedthecall.org/come-see-weekend/>)

I'm a DRE/CRE. What should I be doing?

DRE's are often the oil that keeps the Church running. You can be very strong leaders in fostering a Culture of Vocations in your parish.

- Use your initiative and creativity to build up a Culture of Vocations
  - Say the Prayer for Vocations before each class
  - Adopt a seminarian and pray for him see Heedthecall.org/poster for videos of Philadelphia seminarians.
  - Write letters to the seminarians
- Invite Middle School Students (grades 6-8) to attend Brothers of Borromeo Vocation Camp (B.B.V.C.), held on April 4, 2020
- Invite your 5-8th grade catechists to participate with their classes in the Meet the Seminarian Webinar to be held on November 18 and 19, 2019. For more information, visit heedthecall.org/webinar/
- Encourage your catechists to make use of the Vocation Curriculum during, or in close date proximity, to Vocation Awareness Week (November 3-9, 2019) found at heedthecall.org.
- Encourage your catechists to make use of the videos we have available.
- Encourage your catechists to invite young men they think would be good priests and the young women they think would be good sisters to consider if this is where God is leading them.
- Invite Priests to speak at your program.
- Think Outside the Box - let us know your ideas!

I'm a Youth Minister. What should I be doing?

Youth Ministers often know the middle school, high school and college students the best in their parishes and, therefore, are invaluable in fostering priestly vocations.

- Use your initiative and creativity to build up a Culture of Vocations
- Say the Prayer for Vocations at each gathering/youth night
- Invite Middle School Students (grades 6-8) to attend Brothers of Borromeo Vocation Camp (B.B.V.C.) held on April 4, 2020
- Host a Vocation Panel during Vocation Awareness Week or during the year with Priests/Religious/Sisters/Married Couple
- Host a Youth Night focusing on vocations during Vocation Awareness Week or during the year.
- Invite men to a Come and See Weekend (<https://heedthecall.org/come-see-weekend/>)
- With or without your Priest bring men to a Tuesday @ Overbrook
- Organize an event where men get to know you as a person and what your life is like
- Refer men, College age and above, to Father DeLacy for Forged by the Fire
- Invite High School Guys to our Quo Vadis Camp or if Juniors or Seniors, to the Going Deeper Camp or Philadelphia Catholic Scholars Program. Additional information can be found on our website at heedthecall.org/summer/
- If you attend a Youth Rally such as Steubenville where there is an Altar Call for Vocations, please consider inviting these men to attend a Come and See Weekend and/or Quo Vadis.
  - As much as 20% of all vocations to the priesthood in recent years have attended a Steubenville Youth Conference. This can be a powerful catalyst for fostering vocations.
- Invite Priests to be speakers for your Youth Nights
- Invite seminarians to speak for your Youth Nights
