Personal
Reflection

What is a time in your life you've been docile to the Holy Spirit? How did God work in your life during that time?

Are there areas in your relationship with God that you are trying to control? How might God be asking you to trust Him there?

What steps can you take to surrender those areas to God?

"There is no better novena than this: O Jesus, I abandon myself to you. Jesus, you take over." -The words of Jesus to Servant of God Fr. Dolindo Ruotolo
